

CHEA CHOIRS STUDENT BEHAVIOR GUIDELINES

As choir directors our purpose goes beyond the obvious one of helping your children grow in their musical knowledge and singing ability. A choir differs from many other group activities in that the efforts and commitment of each individual have an effect on the success of the group as a whole. It is very much a team effort that depends on each member doing his part to work toward the group's success as well as his own personal growth. This makes choir an excellent medium for teaching Christian character; in fact, excellence in our music will be unattainable without the practice of such virtues as self-discipline, loyalty, respect for others, submission to authority, diligence, perseverance, humility, patience and kindness. In choir these virtues translate into high standards of behavior that include, but are not limited to:

- Faithful and timely attendance at rehearsals
- Being attentive and working hard in rehearsal
- Diligence in learning music and completing assignments at home
- Being encouraging and patient with others in the choir
- Cooperating with the director and other leaders
- Not engaging in disruptive or distracting behavior
- Behaving and dressing modestly
- Treating the church's property with the utmost care and respect
- Cleaning up after yourself and your choir after rehearsal

Any singer who is not adhering to these standards will be corrected and warned. If there is another occurrence, parents will be contacted. If the problem continues, the singer will lose the privilege of being in the choir.

The underlying purpose of our choir program, and the root and sum of behavioral expectations can be found in 1 Corinthians 10: 31 "Whatever you do, do all to the glory of God."

Christ Covenant Campus Guidelines

- All children must be under adult supervision at all times.
- No children are allowed in the balcony of the Worship Center.
- Only authorized individuals are allowed in the light and sound booth
- No food allowed in the Worship Center.
- Anyone on campus before 3:00pm on school days will need to sign in as a visitor in the school or church office. Choir members and parents should not be entering facilities until 3:00pm. Please wait in the car with your child if you are earlier than 3:00.
- Choirs meeting in the Worship Center should enter through the main doors and proceed quietly to their meeting areas. Be careful not to disturb others using the building. Park in the central parking area to avoid disrupting the CDS car pools.
- King's Kids should enter the Fireplace Room through the outside door; don't use the main entrance to the building to avoid congestion in the hallways as CDS dismisses classes.

I have read and understand these guidelines and agree that our family will abide by them.
