Providing Choral Instruction for Homeschooling Families for the Glory of God

“Whatever you do, do all to the glory of God” 1 Corinthians 10:31

CODE OF CONDUCT

Participation in the CHEA Singers is a privilege for all involved. In order to ensure that the goal of CHEA Singers, which is to provide choral instruction for the glory of God is advanced, the following Code of Conduct applies to parents, legal guardians, families and choir students:

1. CHEA Singers utilizes the facilities of Christ Covenant Church with its permission. As guests at the church’s facilities, parents, legal guardians, families, and choir students are expected to treat the church’s staff and facilities with respect and due care.
2. Only choir students attending a rehearsal and parent helpers are allowed on the Christ Covenant campus during choir rehearsals. Parents or legal guardians who wish to observe a rehearsal should obtain the prior permission of the appropriate Choir Director.
3. Choir students must walk quietly in the Church’s hallways, and must be respectful of adults and other students at all times.
4. Since Covenant Day School classes dismiss before choir rehearsals and activities start, all drivers of motor vehicles should be alert to traffic and pedestrians in the school and church parking lots.
5. Choir students are expected to arrive for choir rehearsals and activities on time, and are expected to be picked up promptly at the conclusion of their rehearsals and activities. However, in no event should a child arrive and enter the church facilities before 3:10 p.m.
6. Neither choir students nor their siblings are permitted to be in the balcony of the church sanctuary at any time.
7. No one is permitted to bring food into the church sanctuary at any time. Choir students are not permitted to bring food into choir rehearsal rooms without permission.
8. When on the church campus, choir students are expected to be under adult supervision at all times.
9. Only authorized individuals are permitted to enter the light and sound booths.

10. Choir students are expected to pursue choir activities diligently and to complete required homework assignments.

11. Choir students are expected to faithfully attend all choir rehearsals, performances, and related activities unless sick or conflicted by a required school or family event.

12. Choir students are expected to be attentive and apply themselves diligently in rehearsals, and must not engage in disruptive or distracting behavior.

13. Choir students are expected to behave respectfully toward fellow students, parent volunteers, and Choir Directors at all times.

14. Choir students are expected to dress modestly and in compliance with the dress code applicable to their choir.

15. Choir students are expected to clean up all trash after rehearsals and to leave the church's facilities in the condition they found them.
