

KING'S CHORALE 2018-2019 INFORMATION Application Deadline is ~~May 25, 2018~~
Extended to June 12, 2018

A voice check is required for all singers (voice checks will be in June)

What: The King's Chorale is a treble choir for homeschooled children ages 11-14 and is part of the CHEA Singers program. Singers must be 11 by Oct. 15, 2018. The choir focuses on developing good singing tone and part-singing as it learns a variety of excellent music from many time periods and styles. Basic music history and theory instruction are a part of our training. Taking the joy of excellent music to people outside the classroom is also a priority for this choir.

A choir is a team effort that depends on each member doing his part to work toward the group's success as well as his own personal growth. All members must be willing singers committed to participating appropriately in choir activities and working at home on assignments.

Why: Committed involvement in a choir brings great joy and satisfaction as new skills are learned, new levels of competence are achieved, beautiful music is created, new friends are made, and we become a tool in the King's hand to bring His blessing to others. We welcome your consideration of joining us in this endeavor!

Requirements:

- Singers must be able to match pitch and sing in tune within the choir's singing range.
- Choir parents and singers must have a commitment to conscientious involvement in the choir that includes practice at home and consistent attendance at rehearsals and concerts.
- Notify the director if your child will be absent. Excessive absence may result in dismissal from choir.
- Practicing at home to learn and memorize music is necessary; our work in rehearsal is to create art with the basic rudiments of notes and words which have been learned at home.
- Signed agreement and adherence to Code of Conduct and CHEA Singers Requirements for Participating Families and Liability Waiver (attached).
- Participation in outreach programs (e.g. area retirement homes, nursing homes, and senior centers).
- Check email frequently for choir updates. Join our CHEA Singers online group home on Big Tent, keep up to date on information posted there. Respond to requests in a timely manner.
- Serve the choir by fulfilling parent job responsibilities assigned by the director and based on job questionnaire responses.
- Attendance at Parent Orientation (late August, TBA)
- Participation in CHEA Singers Fall and Spring concerts (November 15, 2018 and April 26, 2019) is mandatory

Costs: Registration fee of $50 per student. Uniform and music deposit of $40 - refunded after returned according to contract instructions

Rehearsals: Tuesdays, approximately 3:30pm to 5:30pm at Christ Covenant Church, Matthews, NC (exact time & room TBA), late August to early December, and January to early May.

Choir Uniforms: Required uniforms are provided with a deposit fee. You will need to provide appropriate shoes and stockings, as instructed.

CHEA SINGERS REQUIREMENTS FOR PARTICIPATING FAMILIES AND RELEASE AND WAIVER OF LIABILITY

Participation in CHEA Singers programs, rehearsals, performances, and related activities by homeschool students and their families is a privilege and not a right.

To further the purpose of CHEA Singers, which is to provide choral instruction for students and their families for the glory of God, parents, legal guardians, and students must agree to certain conditions and responsibilities as a requirement of participation. The responsibilities of students, parents and legal guardians of students seeking to participate in CHEA Singers programs, rehearsals, performances and related activities are as follows:

1. To support the CHEA Singers Board of Directors and Choir Directors and to submit to their authority in regard to decisions affecting CHEA Singers programs, rehearsals, performances, and related activities.
2. To bring concerns regarding any aspect of CHEA Singers programs, rehearsals, activities, and performances first to the Choir Director of their student’s choir, and if the issue cannot be resolved by the Choir Director, then to a member of the Board of Directors of CHEA Singers. Students, parents, and legal guardians agree that criticism of CHEA Singers, its students, parents, legal guardians, Choir Directors, and members of the Board of Directors, to third parties, whether publicized or not, impedes and defeats the goals and purposes of the program.
3. Parents and legal guardians, from time to time, may be asked to provide reasonable assistance to Choir Directors. Parents and legal guardians agree to provide such assistance, unless there are meritorious reasons for not doing so. Parents and legal guardians agree that such assistance shall be on a volunteer basis.
4. Parents or legal guardians, as appropriate, must make application for acceptance into a CHEA Singers choir, and in most cases prospective students will be required to audition. Parents and legal guardians agree and understand that participation in or acceptance to a CHEA Singers choir is not a matter of right and that the Board of Directors of CHEA Singers or a Choir Director have the unfettered right to decline any student’s application for admission and acceptance into a choir for any reason.
5. Parents and legal guardians agree that registration fees are due and must be paid at the time of initial registration. Students will not be accepted into a choir until all required registration forms, including this Requirements of Participating Families and Release and Waiver of Liability form, have been received and all initial registration fees have been paid. Once a student is accepted into a choir, registration fees are non-refundable.
6. Facilities at which CHEA Singers conduct its programs, rehearsals, activities, and performances shall be treated with respect, and there is to be no damage to or mistreatment of such facilities. Parents and legal guardians agree to reimburse any facility which sustains any damage as a result of their student’s misconduct, and agree to indemnify CHEA Singers and its Board of Directors of and from any and all costs incurred for repair of damage to facilities due to student misbehavior.
7. Parents and legal guardians agree that students shall conduct themselves respectfully and with decorum when engaged in CHEA Singers programs, rehearsals, performances, and related activities, as well as at all times when on the premises of any facility.
8. Parents and legal guardians may observe any choir rehearsal with the prior permission of their students’ Choir Director. Choir Directors may exclude from rehearsals any parent, legal guardian, or other person whose conduct is a distraction from, or detrimental to, the proper performance of such rehearsal.

9. Parents, legal guardians and students agree to abide by the CHEA Singers' Code of Conduct, a copy of which is available on the CHEA Singers webpage at www.cheaonline.com. Parents and legal guardians agree that the Code of Conduct may be amended from time to time, as necessary, in the sole discretion of the CHEA Singers Board of Directors, and parents and legal guardians agree to be bound by any such amendments.

10. Parents, legal guardians, and students who are found to have violated any of the above responsibilities are subject to appropriate correction, up to and including immediate dismissal from CHEA Singers programs, rehearsals, activities, and performances, without prior notice. Similarly, parents and legal guardians whose conduct, in the opinion of the Board of Directors is detrimental to the goals and purposes of the CHEA Singers are subject to correction, up to and including dismissal from its programs, rehearsals, activities, and performances without prior notice.
