CHEA Singers is an organization that relies on parental help to function. CYC parents are required to serve in at least one job for CYC for your child to participate. Please read the items below carefully. We take this commitment to our choristers seriously and ask that you and your children take it seriously also.

Things to consider: A choir is a team effort that depends on each member doing his part to work toward the group's success as well as his own personal growth. CYC is the apex of our graded choir program, and a high quality of work and product is expected. Please consider carefully whether involvement in choir is appropriate for your child.

Being in a choir involves more than just fitting rehearsal time into your schedule. Practice at home is required.

Having singers drop out of choir mid-year is not fulfilling the commitment you agree to when you sign the CHEA Singers application documents and brings hardship on the other choir members and the choir's director. No singer is unimportant, and each one is missed when he is absent. Be realistic about adding activities to your schedule and weigh your priorities as you make a decision concerning taking part in choir.

Committed involvement in a choir brings great joy and satisfaction as new skills are learned, new levels of competence are achieved, beautiful music is created, new friends are made, and we become a tool in the Savior's hand to bring His blessing to others. Thank you for thoughtfully considering joining us in this endeavor!

By registering for the Carolina Youth Chorale, you are agreeing to the following:

1. Making every effort to miss no more than two (2) rehearsals per semester. We understand illness and injury happen; however, any singer missing multiple rehearsals for any reason will need to show the director, at his request, their readiness to perform well in order to sing in the next concert. Singers are expected to be present for especially the last two rehearsals before concert. Let Mrs. Glaser know IN ADVANCE if you have a conflict.

Rehearsals are held every Tuesday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30, August 20, 2019, through May 12, 2020.

*NO rehearsals on: Fall break: Nov. 26, 2019 Christmas break: Dec. 24, 30, 2019 Spring break: Apr. 7, 2020.

2. Students are expected to be at rehearsal and ready to begin each week at 3:30pm and stay until dismissal time at 5:30pm unless prior approval is given by Mrs. Glaser.

3. A PARENT is to contact Mrs. Glaser prior to rehearsal if student will miss rehearsal, be late or leave early, and give the reason. We need to know that a PARENT knows their singer is missing rehearsal or has special circumstances that day. Seniors and super-seniors may take responsibility for this.

4. Singing in the following performances (Please mark your calendars now!):

*Thursday, December 12, 2019 at 7pm - CHEA Singers Combined Choirs Winter Concert

*Tuesday, December 17, 2019 at 7pm – CYC Christmas Concert

Friday, May 1, 2020 at 7pm - CHEA Singers Combined Choirs Spring Concert (note this is a different day than usual)

*Tuesday, May 12, 2020 at 7pm - CYC Spring Concert

5. Attending the entire workshop Thursday, August 15, (9am-3pm), Friday, August (9am-3pm), and Saturday, August, (9am-12pm). It is understood that some families will be on vacations already scheduled, that some dual enrollment students will have class, etc. Please let Mrs. Glaser know of any unavoidable conflicts you may have.
6. At least one parent attending the parent meeting on the second day of workshop Friday, August 16, 2019 in Room 211 upstairs in the Worship Center at 9:00 – 9:45 a.m.
7. Following dress code and all Code of Conduct requirements (see below).
8. Parent agreeing to fulfill at least one job for CYC – whatever is assigned to them from their choices on a future parent survey and helping with other needs when they are able. (The exception to this is if you have a weekly job for another CHEA choir.)
9. Parent and Student checking email daily. This is our primary method of communication.
10. Student completing any homework assigned each week.

CYC Dress Code

Shorts and skirts should be of modest length, hems to the fingertips a good suggestion. Leggings may be worn with dresses, skirts or tunics that come to the thigh. Tops should be modest, avoiding spaghetti straps, but sleeveless is allowed.

No hats, no underwear showing, no shirts with inappropriate designs or slogans are allowed.

Scholarship Fund Opportunity:

We invite you to consider giving your support to help other homeschooling children in our community to join CHEA Singers. Although our registration fees are considerably lower in comparison to other choral programs in our area, families with multiple children might consider this something their family cannot do at this time. We do not want to create a hardship for anyone and want to welcome all homeschooling children who qualify for membership. Would you consider donating any amount to help another singer join us this fall?

To register, complete ALL of the following steps:

1. Read and consider attached CHEA Singers Requirements for Participants & Liability Waiver and CHEA Singers Code of Conduct. Sign and return with registration.
2. Print and complete one Student Information form per student. Print one Waiver/Code of Conduct per family (use 2-sided print mode for Waiver/Code of Conduct if possible. For legal purposes, we need all pages printed.)
3. Mail Student Information form(s) AND the signed Waiver and Code of Conduct AND a check made to CHEA Singers for registration fee of $25 per student (donations to scholarship fund may be included with this and donation amount noted on memo line). Send to registrar below:

REQUIREMENTS FOR PARTICIPATING FAMILIES AND RELEASE AND WAIVER OF LIABILITY

Participation in CHEA Singers programs, rehearsals, performances, and related activities by homeschool students and their families is a privilege and not a right. To further the purpose of CHEA Singers, which is to provide choral instruction for students and their families for the glory of God, parents, legal guardians, and students must agree to certain conditions and responsibilities as a requirement of participation. The responsibilities of students, parents and legal guardians of students seeking to participate in CHEA Singers programs, rehearsals, performances and related activities are as follows:

1. To support the CHEA Singers Board of Directors and Choir Directors and to submit to their authority in regard to decisions affecting CHEA Singers programs, rehearsals, performances, and related activities.
2. To bring concerns regarding any aspect of CHEA Singers programs, rehearsals, activities, and performances first to the Choir Director of their student's choir, and if the issue cannot be resolved by the Choir Director, then to a member of the Board of Directors of CHEA Singers. Students, parents, and legal guardians agree that criticism of CHEA Singers, its students, parents, legal guardians, Choir Directors, and members of the Board of Directors, to third parties, whether publicized or not, impedes and defeats the goals and purposes of the program.
3. Parents and legal guardians, from time to time, may be asked to provide reasonable assistance to Choir Directors. Parents and legal guardians agree to provide such assistance, unless there are meritorious reasons for not doing so. Parents and legal guardians agree that such assistance shall be on a volunteer basis.
4. Parents or legal guardians, as appropriate, must make application for acceptance into a CHEA Singers choir, and in most cases prospective students will be required to audition. Parents and legal guardians agree and understand that participation in or acceptance to a CHEA Singers choir is not a matter of right and that the Board of Directors of CHEA Singers or a Choir Director have the unfettered right to decline any student's application for admission and acceptance into a choir for any reason.
5. Parents and legal guardians agree that registration fees are due and must be paid at the time of initial registration. Students will not be accepted into a choir until all required registration forms, including this Requirements of Participating Families and Release and Waiver of Liability form, have been received and all initial registration fees have been paid. Once a student is accepted into a choir, registration fees are non-refundable.
6. Facilities at which CHEA Singers conduct its programs, rehearsals, activities, and performances shall be treated with respect, and there is to be no damage to or mistreatment of such facilities. Parents and legal guardians agree to reimburse any facility which sustains any damage as a result of their student's misconduct, and agree to indemnify CHEA Singers and its Board of Directors of and from any and all costs incurred for repair of damage to facilities due to student misbehavior.
7. Parents and legal guardians agree that students shall conduct themselves respectfully and with decorum when engaged in CHEA Singers programs, rehearsals, performances, and related activities, as well as at all times when on the premises of any facility.

8. Parents and legal guardians may observe any choir rehearsal with the prior permission of their students' Choir Director. Choir Directors may exclude from rehearsals any parent, legal guardian, or other person whose conduct is a distraction from, or detrimental to, the proper performance of such rehearsal.

9. Parents, legal guardians and students agree to abide by the CHEA Singers' Code of Conduct, a copy of which is available on the CHEA Singers webpage at www.cheaonline.com. Parents and legal guardians agree that the Code of Conduct may be amended from time to time, as necessary, in the sole discretion of the CHEA Singers Board of Directors, and parents and legal guardians agree to be bound by any such amendments.

10. Parents, legal guardians, and students who are found to have violated any of the above responsibilities are subject to appropriate correction, up to and including immediate dismissal from CHEA Singers programs, rehearsals, activities, and performances, without prior notice. Similarly, parents and legal guardians whose conduct, in the opinion of the Board of Directors is detrimental to the goals and purposes of the CHEA Singers are subject to correction, up to and including dismissal from its programs, rehearsals, activities, and performances without prior notice.
